

Washington, DC - Congressman Jeff Fortenberry today released this statement following the recent news on Senator Mike Johanns' health:

"I wish Senator Johanns a full and speedy recovery from surgery. My prayers will be with him, Stephanie, and his family during this time. Having known and worked with him for many years, I am confident we will see Sen. Johanns up and back to work for the people of Nebraska very soon."

###